

TEACHERS
LAW SCHOOL.
CIVIL EDUCATION

JAMES OTIS LECTURE SERIES.
CIVIL EDUCATION

Teachers are the Guardians of Democracy

The Colorado Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates is pleased to announce its 8th Annual Teachers Law School and its 2nd annual James Otis Lecture Series. The Teachers Law School is an intensive, hands-on experience with the best trial lawyers and judges in the State of Colorado, including the Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court.

Join us for interactive and fulfilling discussions concerning the civil and criminal jury system, teacher's liability, social media in the classroom and evolving legal issues facing teachers of middle school and high school students. This program will qualify for Continuing Education credits.

Date: October 12 and 13, 2017

Location: Colorado Judicial Center
2 East 14th Street
Denver, Colorado

Cost: None to Registered Teachers.
Stipends for Substitute Teachers Available

Featured Events: Conducted in the Colorado Supreme Court Conference Room, with visits to civil, criminal and juvenile courtrooms and the Denver County Jail in the Lindsey-Flanigan Courthouse, and Ralph L. Carr Judicial Learning Center. Participate in mock jury selection, and enjoy dinner in small groups with ABOTA lawyers on Thursday night.

Save the DATE

ABOTA is also proud to present the James Otis Lecture Series, designed to allow schools to comply with the requirements of the federal statute creating Constitution Day. The James Otis Lecture Series educates and inspires students and teachers to know and respect the Constitution.

Date: October 20, 2017

Location: State Capitol Building

Cost: None to Registered Teachers

Contact John R. Rodman at (303) 377-1111 or
jrodman@jrodlaw.com
for additional information.

Sponsored by
The Colorado Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates

American Board of Trial Advocates

Registration for both events is now open and space is limited.