

ACIS 2024 Admissions Workshop

When: Friday, October 25, 2024 from 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Location: via Zoom (Zoom login information will be sent a few days prior to the event.)

Cost: Free

Agenda:

10:30- 11:15: Legal Topics and Trends Related to Independent School Admissions by Angie DeVine from S&D Law

11:15-11:30: Q and A and announcements

Description:

Angie will discuss legal matters as they relate to admissions. These include highlighting laws and regulations the admissions offices should be aware of in enrollment management and how to address sensitive situations when they arise. She will also share legal trends in the industry.

Bio:

Angie DeVine:

Angie DeVine is an attorney and shareholder at S&D Law, formerly known as Silver & DeBoskey. She and her partner, Steve Kelly, are trusted advisors to the ACIS and several of its member schools, and provide legal and strategic guidance regarding employment issues, contract matters, student and family conflicts, and collection cases. Angie is a Colorado native, with degrees in journalism (1999) and law (2004) from the University of Colorado at Boulder. Between earning her journalism and law degrees, Angie worked as a beat reporter for The Greeley Tribune, covering the 22 small towns in Weld County. Personally, Angie is the mother to three young daughters, ages 10, 7 and 6.