

Cyber Breaches in Schools: What Leaders Need to Know to Protect Students and Data

Who: Heads of School, Technology Directors, CFOs

Presenters: Zack Kramer, Area Senior Vice President – Risk Placement Services

Pam Adams, President & CEO – ISU Insurance Services of Colorado

When: Wednesday, April 15th from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Where: Virtual on Zoom

Description:

Cyber incidents and data breaches have become a constant headline as attacks grow more frequent and increasingly sophisticated. While cybersecurity technology continues to evolve, no organization—including schools—is immune. Cyber liability insurance plays a critical role when an incident occurs, providing access to specialized resources designed to help schools respond, recover, and protect their communities.

Join our session to find out about:

- 2026 Cyber Market Outlook / Update
- The Importance of Cyber Liability Insurance Protection
- Best Practices / Prevention Controls
- Claim Scenarios
- Benefits and services of the Breach Response teams provided by Cyber carriers

Bios:

Zack Kramer, CPCU, ASLI, Area Senior Vice President at Risk Placement Services

Zack Kramer is a graduate of Illinois State University with a double major in Risk Management and Finance. With an insurance-focused career from the very beginning, Zach has built deep expertise across a range of providers. Promoted in 2024 to Area Senior Vice President at Risk Placement Services, he now leads and mentors teams across cyber and other management liability lines, leveraging strong carrier relationships and years of hands-on experience. Zach has been instrumental in developing numerous cyber insurance programs throughout his career.

Pam Adams, CIC, CRM, CPCU, President & CEO at ISU Insurance Services of Colorado

Pam Adams is President & CEO of ISU Insurance Services of Colorado and a trusted insurance advisor to independent schools and not-for-profit organizations. As the self-described “Chief Worry Officer” for her clients, Pam focuses on understanding their most pressing concerns and translating those risks into thoughtful, practical insurance and risk management solutions. Her approach is rooted in listening first and guiding leaders toward informed, confident decisions. Pam’s leadership experience spans local and national insurance and risk education organizations, and she currently serves on the Executive Committee of the University of Colorado at Denver Risk Management and Insurance Program Advisory Council.

- Free for those schools who purchased a speaker series subscription.
- $50 per attendee for those schools who have chosen “A la Carte”.