

Observation Strategies, Coaching Techniques, Feedback Cycle

Who: Division Heads, Heads of School, Deans of Faculty, Faculty, Teaching Mentors

Presenter: Julie Eber, Partner at Educators Collaborative

When: Thursday, October 23rd from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Where: Virtual on Zoom

Description:

-To have a better understanding regarding observation strategies to increase teacher performance and student learning.

-Learn ways to coach and how to deliver productive feedback.

-Gain understanding about to give productive feedback and how to implement all these in your building.

Key Topics

1. Introduction & Purpose
2. Observation Strategies
 - Types of observations
 - What to observe
 - Data collection tools
3. Coaching Techniques
 - Coaching models
 - Key coaching skills
 - Setting goals and tracking progress
4. Feedback Best Practices
 - Characteristics of effective feedback
 - Promoting reflection
5. Implementation & Follow-Through
 - Scheduling and structuring observations and coaching cycles
 - Documenting and monitoring growth
 - Creating a culture of continuous improvement

Bio:

Julie Eber: JL Visions

Julie Eber is a Denver-based educator, instructional coach, and professional development trainer with over 30 years of experience who now runs her own consulting business, JL Visions Consulting. Her philosophy emphasizes the importance of mentoring and coaching for all teachers to grow and become leaders in their classrooms. With her Masters in Education Administration, Julie has held a variety of educational roles, including writing specialist, teacher mentor and coach in Denver Public Schools, and Building Resource Teacher in Douglas County School District, plus a presenter at literacy conferences. She has also served as a Site Coordinator and Professor with Metropolitan State University of Denver and is currently an affiliate professor with UNC-Center for Urban Education in Lowry. Julie believes that relationship-building, coaching, strategic goal-setting, and consistent follow-up are crucial for developing educators and improving student learning. When she's not making positive changes in schools, you will find Julie hiking, skiing, biking or working on a ceramics wheel.

- Free for those schools who purchased a speaker series subscription.
- $50 per attendee for those schools who have chosen “A la Carte”.